ARCADIA PREPARATORY SCHOOL ANNOUNCES SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Founding students to receive 30% off tuition fees during tenure

All founding students at the Arcadia Preparatory School will benefit from a scholarship fund, the school's founders have announced.

All students entering the 2016/17 academic year will be refunded 30% of their tuition fees for their entire tenure at the school.

↑ Arcadia Preparatory School will open in August.

Abdulla Al Shirawi and Mohan Valrani-chairman and senior vice chairman respectively of the Al Shirawi Group – said in a joint statement: “We want a school community that reflects the values espoused by the rulers of the UAE. The Arcadia Preparatory School will not only be an educational establishment but a haven of peace, happiness and harmony, open to children of all nationalities residing within the UAE.

“The scholarship fund is a first of its kind in the UAE and offers great value, especially when combined with the Enrichment Learning Program that offers an extended school day filled with extra-curricular activities.”

Located in Dubai's Jumeirah Village Triangle, Arcadia Preparatory School will offer the National Curriculum of England to students from Foundation Stage 1 to Key Stage 2.

Arcadia is one of 20 new schools set to open in August 2016.
